Bill Information

Measure 114 is already embedded in Oregon law, with implementation dependent on a favorable ruling by the Oregon Supreme Court. HB 4145 makes the complex permitting process work more efficiently and effectively with a number of technical fixes.

Talking points

- Modifications such as telling where to apply for permits and defining permit eligibility requirements create a more workable firearm permitting process.
- Modifications such as extending the time limit from 30 to 60 days for a permit agent to either issue or deny a permit creates a stronger process

Legislative Priority

PROMOTE PUBLIC SAFETY and a more equitable and effective criminal justice system through violence prevention/reduction programs, rehabilitation and reentry programs for adults and juveniles in custody, and common-sense gun laws.
